TAYLOR UNIVERSITY

HOMECOMING PROGRAM

October 17, 18 and 19

"Taylor Tower" and Administration Building, oldest on the campus. Missionary Bishop William Taylor, called by the historian Hurst, "The Modern St. Paul," assisted in the laying of its cornerstone. This historic tower, old-fashioned, but boldly upright, fittingly represents the great Christian principles for which Taylor University firmly stands.

Prelude: "Arioso" (from Cantata No. 156) Bach
Miss Wilma Augsburg

Hymn "Crown Him With Many Crowns"

Crown Him with many crowns, The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark! how the heav'nly anthem drowns all music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing of Him who died for thee,
And hail Him as Thy matchless King thro' all eternity.

Crown Him the Lord of life! Who triumphed o'er the grave;
Who rose victorious to the strife for those He came to save;
His glories now we sing, Who died and rose on high;
Who died eternal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

Crown Him the Lord of Heav'n! One with the Father known,
One with the Spirit through Him giv'n from yonder glorious throne!
To Thee be endless praise, for Thou for us hast died;
Be Thou, O Lord, thro' endless days adored and magnified.

Invocation President Evan H. Bergwall

Hymn of Consecration "O Jesus, I have Promised"

O Jesus, I have promised to serve Thee to the end;
Be Thou forever near me, My Master and My Friend:
I shall not fear the battle if Thou art by my side,
Nor wander from the pathway if Thou wilt by my Guide.

O let me feel Thee near me, the world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle, the tempting sounds I hear:
My foes are ever near me, around me and within;
But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer, and shield my soul from sin.

O Jesus, Thou hast promised to all who follow Thee
That where Thou art in glory there shall Thy servant be;
And, Jesus, I have promised to serve Thee to the end;
O give me grace to follow my Master and my Friend.

Benediction

Postlude: "Prelude and Fugue in F Minor" Handel
Miss Wilma Augsburg

"Let your light so shine"

Alumni and friends of Taylor University are proud to have their school called the "lengthening shadow of that man of God, the great missionary Bishop, William Taylor."

For over 106 years students have come to learn and have gone to serve in "the uttermost parts of the world." One out of every ten Taylor graduates has entered the foreign missionary service. At the present time there are approximately 125 alumni and former students on the foreign field. This figure does not include those who might now be home on furlough or in deputation work. Scores have given lives of Christian service in this country. It has been estimated that over half of Taylor's graduates are in some type of full time Christian service. Many others have lived effectively for Christ in their various occupations as a result of the influence they have received at Taylor University. Surely, as Bishop Taylor has said, "This work is of God."

As you come on the campus at this Homecoming season, pray that the spirit of Christ, which motivated Bishop Taylor and the many who have gone from this institution, may be renewed in your life. Then "let your light... shine..."
